SAS will ONLY communicate through your U of G email – check it regularly!

2 SUBMIT YOUR DOCUMENTATION

You will be asked for documentation from a registered health professional which verifies the existence of a disability and describes your current functional abilities given the condition you experience. Visit the SAS website to learn what documentation you'll need to provide. Please note you may need to update your existing documentation. Contact us for additional assistance.

- Discuss your individual accommodations and support requirements
- Set-up classroom and exam accommodations as appropriate
- Review your schedule and discuss disability-related support available for each course

 COMPLETE:
Before September

PLEASE BOOK YOUR APPOINTMENT EARLY AS THE START OF THE SEMESTER IS BUSY

Once these steps are completed and students are registered with SAS, supports may be provided related to:

- Tests and examinations (e.g. extra time for tests, quiet testing environment)
- Course materials (e.g. alternate format)
